The kingdom of heaven is like a man who went to a city and devoted all his time to reading the Bible. He found a great harvest of souls and decided to start a church. He called his disciples to his pulpit and began to teach them the Word of God. He told them that the kingdom of heaven is like a pearl of great price, which a man sold all his possessions to obtain. He also said that the kingdom of heaven is like a net cast into the sea, which catches both the good and the bad. He taught them to be watchful and pray always, for the kingdom of heaven is like a laborer who sowed good seed in his field. He also said that the kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which when planted grew into a tree, where fowls of the air tarried.
